Notification of Juror's Decision

Notification of Juror's Decision will be made via email from a member of the Student Exhibitions Committee by Monday, January 26th and results will also be posted on the Art Office door. If your artwork is accepted, you will receive detailed instructions on how and when to deliver your artwork to the gallery. Delivery of accepted artwork will occur between February 2 & 3.

Liability and Insurance

Every precaution will be taken in handling and display. Artworks will not be insured. Exhibition participants must refrain from touching their own or anyone else's work unless specified by the artist.

The School of Art is not responsible for any damage to artwork due to a lack of adherence to these guidelines for submission.

Sales

The Ned and Gloria Griner Art Gallery does not function as a sales agent for guest artists; however, The Ned and Gloria Griner Art Gallery will provide contact information for purchase inquiries.

Photography

The School of Art reserves the right to photograph accepted work for promotional purposes.

Academic dishonesty will not be tolerated

Any form of plagiarism at any point of the show proceedings will result in rejection. If the discovery of plagiarism occurs during the exhibition, the work would be immediately removed and will include the rescinding of any award and/or award money given. The Student Exhibitions Committee will make the final decision for any work in question. The School of Art's definition of plagiarism is: "While one's work may be derivative from some particular artistic influence, nonetheless, it should be substantially different and transformational in appearance and character from that which one is inspired to create one's own artwork."
